Lab Assignment-4

WAP to develop a Generative Adversarial Network (GAN)-based image augmentation model to generate realistic synthetic images from MNIST dataset. The model should consist of a Generator that produces new images and a Discriminator that distinguishes between real and generated images. Train the GAN using the dataset and evaluate the quality and diversity of the generated images using appropriate quantitative metrics and visual analysis.